R.766-92

Sec 32 of the Forest Rules 1878 (Page 9, Forest Manual) runs thus "Inamdars who are not entitled by summad or by judicial decision to the timber & sandalwood growing on their Inam Land may cut & fell all wood (except teak & sandal) growing on such lands"

The Govt's difficulty is whether the 2nd para of Secs no 5380-82 8/8/12/97 P.L.66-92 (Serial no 42 2 pamphlet) is governed by the above Section. There seems no doubt that it is governed by the above Section.

of Mysore General and Civil Departments.

Sir,

With reference to the pending
case of Government Proceedings No. 5380-82.
R. T. 16-92
dated 18th November 1892 I beg that the Inamdars of Kudagal and Billage, from the heirs of their grant were not entitled to the reserved trees I have the honour to state as follows.

2. The contention of the Inamdar
the Inam Settlement Officer is that the Inamdars should not be allowed to cut reserved trees in the limits of their Inam villages without a pass from the Conservator or Deputy Conservator produce their Sannad.

3. The Forest Rules of 10th March 1869 make no special mention of Inamdars. The subsequent Notification No. 54 dated 22nd June 1869 says "that Inamdars whose Sannads make no Special mention of the holders, being entitled to timber and Sandalwood growing on their lands will be allowed to fell and Sell all unreserved timber growing on their lands. They cannot, however, Sell or in any way dispose of any of the 9 reserved kinds of timber Standing on their lands."

4. The Forest Rules of 1878 Section 31 and 32 State that Inamdars, who are not entitled by a Sannad or Judicial decision to timber and
